

Maths in Year 1

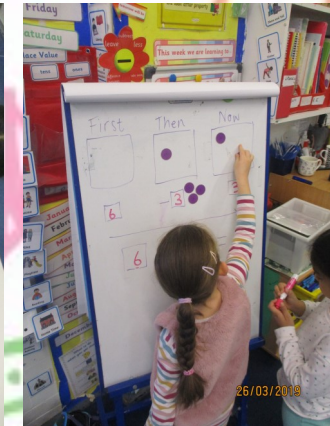

27/03/2019

20/03/2019

6/02/2019

26/03/2019

Maths is often taught using concrete resources before moving on to pictorial representations and matching these to abstract equations

Year 1 children learn the augmentation and aggregation structures for addition, and the reduction and partitioning structures for subtraction.

In Year 1 children secure their understanding of number bonds and are able to apply them to more complex problem solving and reasoning problems

27/03/2019