

RE in KS1

The children learn about different places of worship in a variety of religions. They have visits from a local reverend and Imam who share their beliefs. They also enjoy visiting a mosque.

Diwali art and dancing!

LO: Understanding the importance of different places of worship, visiting a Gurdwara.

What is the Guru Granth Sahib and why is it important?

The Guru Granth Sahib is the holy book and it is important to Sikhs because it has the teachings of Sikhism.

What is the langar in a gurdwara?

It is the kitchen where any body can get free meals.

What is a chaur? What is it used for in the gurdwara?

The chaur is a ^{white} fan that is waved over the Guru Granth Sahib.

Religion and nature

Buddhist Beliefs about Nature

9/03/22

Buddhists believe that...

★ All living things are important.

★ We should be kind and loving to all living things.

★ You shouldn't harm any animal, no matter how big or how small.